Although the attached relates to a familiar subject, it raises a very different issue from the one we recently discussed. Neither I nor the DDA was aware that OTE had a shortfall in operational travel funds. Your sources are accurate, and steps are underway to correct the problem.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Comptroller
FROM: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: Travel for Training Courses

This subject won't go away. Contrary to your comment that the training travel will be taken care of, I understand [ ] will be [ ] short in its travel budget. I trust your folks, through the generosity of their hearts, will take care of that so necessary plans can be made to accommodate our training schedule.
